They Shouldn't Die of Dirty Teeth:
Oral Health of the Aged Population

As our population continues to age and more and more people become dependent on nursing home care, the problem of poor oral health is growing quickly. And it turns out that teaching care providers to brush and floss their client's teeth is not really the best answer. Something needs to be done to stop this epidemic and the needless suffering of our elders. This course addresses oral care issues facing dependent adults, with a focus on nursing home residents and their primary care givers, namely nursing assistants and nurses. This course will get attendees energized about caring for this population.

Brilliant Hyduction, My Dear Hygienist

Come feel Angie's passion for improving the lives of hygienists everywhere through the "HyDuctions" she has made throughout her career. Angie takes attendees on a journey through the world of the HyDuctions that have made a positive contribution to her life as a hygienist. Topics include PerioDuction (Periodontal Deductions), InstraDuction (Instrument Deductions), MIDuction (Minimal Intervention Deductions), ProDuctions (Productivity Deductions) and many more! Come and receive samples of many of the things Angie speaks about!

Angie Stone, RDH, BS, has been the Editor in Chief of Hygiene Tribune, Hygiene Consultant, and has been on faculty in both dental assisting and hygiene programs. She is a national and international speaker. Her articles appeared in many publications. Her research regarding xylitol and elders was published in the peer reviewed journal Integrative Medicine. Her company, HyLife, brings oral care services to elders in nursing home environments, because they "Shouldn't Die of Dirty Teeth". She is the Lead Xylitol Educator for Wasatch Sales. Her book, Dare to be a Difference Maker, was released in December 2013. She was awarded the Sunstar Butler Award of Distinction in 2012 for her work with xylitol and the geriatric population.
